PROVEN SWAMP-ROOT AIDS WEAK KIDNEYS

The symptoms of kidney and bladder troubles are often very distressing and leave the system in a run-down condition. The kidneys seem to suffer most, as almost every victim complains of lame back and urinary troubles which should not be neglected, as these danger signals often lead to more dangerous kidney troubles.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, which, so many people say, soon heals and strengthens the kidneys, is a splendid kidney, liver and bladder medicine, and, being an herbal compound, has a gentle healing effect on the kidneys, which is almost immediately noticed in most cases by those who use it.

A trial will convince anyone who may be in need of it. Better get a bottle from your nearest drug store, and start treatment at once.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

How to Understand the Bible

By REV. B. B. SUTCLIFFE
Extension Department, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT—They read in the book of the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.—Neh. 8:3.

In this eighth chapter of Nehemiah there are seven conditions for Bible study which if followed will give anyone a full understanding of the Word of God.

I. Eagerness to Know What God Says.

In verses one and two the people express a desire to have the Word of God read to them. They ask for it and all who could understand gathered to hear. Not much profit can be received

If there is wanting a desire to know what God teaches. There should be the spirit which characterized Cornelius when he sent for Peter to come to him in order that Peter might tell him the truth of God. His readiness to hear moved the Holy Spirit to move Peter to respond to the call. Cornelius had no claim other than his eagerness to know the truth.

II. Patience in Listening to What God Has to Say.

In verses three we are told that Ezra read to the people from the Book of God from morning until midday, and the people were attentive to the words of the book. It cannot be understood in a moment or an hour. If we would master it we must give to its study more than a few odd moments; and patience is required to gain, little by little, an understanding of the truth which it teaches.

III. Reverence in Our Treatment of the Book.

In verses four to six we are told that when Ezra stood up to read all the people stood and bowed their heads and worshiped the Lord with faces to the ground. There must be no flippancy in handling the Word of God if we would come to a good understanding of its truth. Too often we make the Book common by our much handling. We must guard against all ill-chosen jokes and riddles which tend to steal away our reverence for the Holy Scriptures. We must approach it with bowed heads and with the worshipful spirit if we would have it speak to us.

IV. Intelligent Listening.

In verses seven and eight we see how their minds were exercised and thought awakened. They began to ask questions and the men appointed to read spoke the word distinctly, gave the sense and caused the people to understand. If we will think as we read and question when we do not understand the Spirit himself will cause us to understand. We should pray that ministers everywhere would read the Word to the people distinctly and give the sense of what is read, and then not stop until by restatement and illustration and by all means they have caused the people to understand.

V. Sorrow Because of Conviction.

In verses nine to eleven we see how their openness of mind they gave conscience a chance to do its work. They became convicted and a Godly sorrow sprang up. They felt God had a right to condemn them and they were exercised in conscience. We read the Word of God in vain if we do not allow it to point out our evil and its consequences. But when we do so allow it we come to the next step.

VI. Faith in Its Promises.

In verse twelve we are told that when the rulers told them of the truth and how they could rejoice because of what God had done even in spite of their sin, they believed the Word and put away the sorrow. When we read of how the Lord has forever blotted out our sin and covered it with his own blood we are to believe the Word and rejoice, in spite of our sin, that God has put it away to be remembered no more against us forever.

VII. Obedience to What Is Learned.

The faith is proven by the degree of obedience which we render to the light we receive. Indeed obedience is after all the only proof that we do know the Bible. The eagerness, patience, reverence, intelligent listening, sorrow and faith will all be useless without the obedience to what is taught. James says faith without works is dead—it never was alive. Fulfilling these seven conditions will bring us to the place where the Holy Spirit himself will delight to be our daily teacher revealing the things of Christ to our hearts and giving us that joy of the Lord which will be a tower of strength in all the trying experiences of life.

A signboard stands at a crossing where two roads meet. Children spell out the words for amusement, young people read it from curiosity, the old pass by too hurried to notice it. An old man comes and tries to read. He is a real traveler and we are ready to help him find the right way. So the Holy Spirit gives the truth only to the one who is ready to travel the right road.

DANDRUFF MAKES HAIR FALL OUT

A small bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful.

Girls! Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair in a few moments.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine for a few cents at any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

What Determines Meat and Live-Stock Prices?

Some stock men still think that Swift & Company—and other big packers—can pay as little for live-stock as they wish.

Some consumers are still led to believe that the packers can charge as much for dressed meat as they wish.

This is not true. These prices are fixed by a law of human nature as old as human nature itself—the law of supply and demand.

When more people want meat than there is meat to be had, the scramble along the line to get it for them sends prices up. When there is more meat than there are people who want it, the scramble all along the line to get rid of it within a few days, while it is still fresh, sends prices down.

When prices of meat go up, Swift & Company not only can pay the producer more, but has to pay him more, or some other packer will.

Similarly, when prices recede all down the line Swift & Company cannot continue to pay the producer the same prices as before, and still remain in the packing business.

All the packer can do is to keep the expense of turning stock into meat at a minimum, so that the consumer can get as much as possible for his money, and the producer as much as possible for his live-stock.

Thanks to its splendid plants, modern methods, branch houses, car routes, fleet of refrigerator cars, experience and organization, Swift & Company is able to pay for live cattle 90 per cent of what it receives for beef and by-products, and to cover expense of production and distribution, as well as its profit (a small fraction of a cent per pound), out of the other 10 per cent.
